

Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD)

Archdiocese of Baltimore

2006 CCHD National and Local Grants

National Grants - $157,000

$30,000 - United Workers Assn. (UWA) - Baltimore

This second year CCHD grant will continue the efforts to organize and effect greater dignity and self-respect for the day labor force in the metro area. Increase of the hourly wage, a workers' center and hiring hall, with support of the civic and industry leaders has realized real change.

$25,000 - Save Middle East Action Committee (SMEAC) - Baltimore

This second year CCHD national grant provide advocacy, leadership skills and direction for the continued relocation of residents affected by technological park development in middle east Baltimore.

$25,000 - Proyecto Esperanza - Baltimore

This third year CCHD grant will continue the advocacy and educational opportunities for immigrants primarily of the Latino community. Resources within the legal community also strengthen the group's movement to self-reliance.

$25,000 - Maryland Disabilities Forum (MDF) - Baltimore

This fifth year grant from National CCHD continues the critical advocacy role of MDF, a grassroots organization founded and operated by persons with disabilities and working to change the systems and structures limiting the lives of its members.

$20,000 - Baltimore ACORN/Housing Justice Project - Baltimore

This sixth CCHD grant enables Baltimore ACORN to continue its leadership training, working for affordable housing and the goal of complete elimination of lead paint poisoning.

$20,000 - American Home Day Care Workers (AHDCW) - Maryland Chapter. Based in Baltimore

Third CCHD grant will strengthen the self-sufficiency work hundreds of home day care providers who are generally underpaid, with no health benefits. They have now won the right to become apprenticeship trainers for providers on home care issues.

$12,000 - Immigration Action Service Center - Baltimore

This sixth CCHD national grant will add to the continuing efforts to create an organization representing over 40 ethnic peoples, over 10 language groups to become a unified voice for immigrants and direct them to just hearings and viable job opportunities.

Local Grants - $55,000

$10,000 - Alternative Directions, Inc. - Baltimore

Dedicated to the ongoing rehabilitation of formerly incarcerated persons, this group welcomes, trains and involves the people served in the decision making and efforts to expand the state's role in better opportunities for them.

$10,000 - Maryland Disability Law Center - Baltimore

City-Wide Special Education Advocacy Project assists families/parents of children with disabilities, advocating with other groups to insure rightful educational opportunities.

$10,000 - Notre Dame Mission Volunteers/Americorps - Baltimore

Local grant to implement efforts directing and encouraging Americorps workers to avail themselves of the Education Award Usage Program. If not utilized this federally funded opportunity means limited education for corps members.

$10,000 - Student Sharing Coalition (SSC) - Baltimore

Coalition has provided leadership training, social justice education and many opportunities for college, high school and now, middle school students to understand and advocate for the needs of poor people in our communities. This grant will affirm and help to continue their very special efforts.

$10,000 - Youth as Resources - Baltimore

This grant will aid the ongoing work of a truly unique venture: young adults, students engaged in marketing efforts, fund-raising to encourage and make grant requests to groups struggling to improve neighborhoods and educational opportunities.

$5,000 - United Hands of Carroll County - Westminster

Assisting newly arrived immigrants in their educational, housing and job adjustments, United Hands depends on volunteers, and donors to help meet the needs of our new neighbors. This CCHD local grant will hopefully encourage greater county and state support.

CCHD Collection, Archdiocese of Baltimore. Nov. 2005 - $227,414
National CCHD Grants 2006 Total ----- $157,000
Local CCHD Grants 2006 Total -----$ 55,000
Total CCHD National & Local Grants -- $212,000