WORKSHOPS

1. Year One of the Maryland Catholic Labor Network

Clayton Sinyai, US Catholic Labor Network; Fr. Ty Hullinger, St. Anthony, St. Dominic, & Most Precious Blood; Chuck Hendricks, Unite Here; Maureen Daly, Maryland Catholic Labor Network

Over the past year, the Catholic Labor Network, a national CCHD Strategic Grant Recipient, has worked with area Catholic social justice advocates to build a Maryland chapter. The Maryland CLN has worked to promote justice for ticket sellers at the Strathmore, secure right to recall for hotel workers in Baltimore, and launch a dialogue between labor and the Maryland Catholic Conference. Join us to learn more about the historic first year of the MD Catholic Labor Network and what we are fighting for in the MD 2022 Legislative session.

2. We Are All Part of God's Plan(et): The US Church's Commitment to Pope Francis' Laudato Si Action Plan on the Care for Our Common Home

Catholic Climate Covenant Staff

AM Spanish/PM English

How do we embrace and act upon the teachings of Laudato Si' to care for creation? How can your family, your parish, your school, your diocese participate in the Vatican's global Laudato Si' Action Platform. In this breakout session we will explore Pope Francis' call to care for our common home and brainstorm ideas of how to bring Laudato Si' to life in our communities.

3. CCHD – Dreams from the Past and Dreams for the Future

Marge Trenkle, Catholic Campaign for Human Development

Come and hear about how CCHD has impacted social justice ministry in our country and archdiocese in the past and dream with us about the future.

4. ABC's of Social Justice

Johnny Zokovitch, Pax Christi USA

Back by popular demand, this workshop describes the basic principles of social justice based on Catholic Social Teaching. Participants will explore these basic principles directed at the local parish community and how to incorporate them into daily parish life, through liturgy, social mission, cooperation with other like-minded groups, and otherwise.

5. Dreaming of a Church that is Inclusive and Welcoming to LGBTQ+ Catholics

Panel of LGBTQ+ Catholics, Families and Allies

In the spirit of Pope Francis and Synodality, let us join the voices of all LGBTQ+ Catholics, Families, & Allies to share our “Dream for a Church that is loving, inclusive, and welcoming!” All Are Welcome Parish Ministry is committed to making that dream become a reality. Also, meet Fr. Matt Buening, recently appointed as the Coordinator of Pastoral Care for the LGBTQ+ Community of the Archdiocese of Baltimore.

6. Rooted In Justice: Together Beyond Our Parish

Sherita Thomas, Office of Black Catholic Ministries – Archdiocese of Baltimore; Darron C. Woodus, Holy Family Randallstown.

Where we are today as Black Catholics in Baltimore, rooted in social justice, and charged with the mission of evangelization and oneness in the church today.

7. Right to Counsel for Renters

Matt Hill, Esq., Maryland Public Justice Center

A crucial issue for low income renters is the guaranteed right to counsel for those who face legal action and potential eviction from landlords. Most low income renters in Baltimore City and Baltimore County do not have counsel to represent them and consequently are at a severe disadvantage in court appearances. This workshop will discuss the right to counsel for renters, local and state legislation concerning this right, and prospective programs that can be developed.

8. Accompanying the Global Migrant

Pat Jones; Silvia M. Peart, PhD; Fernando Paniagua, PhD

AM Spanish/PM English

Pope Francis states, “The Church is mother and her motherly attention is expressed with special tenderness and closeness to those who are obliged to flee their own country and exist between rootlessness and integration.” This workshop will address local community and congregational actions that promote the integration of which Pope Francis speaks. Speakers will detail the global movement of migrants in the world today and the ways in which we as a pastoral presence in our communities and congregations can Walk the Journey with migrants who come seeking accompaniment and a place to call home.

9. Equity Now: Unconscious Bias and Baltimore's Equity Mission

Dana Moore, Chief Equity Officer for the City of Baltimore

Baltimore City is hyper focused on assuring that access to opportunity and services is equitable. What does that mean, how is this being accomplished, and how can you be part of the effort? Attendees will get the answers to these questions and, have a roadmap for co-creating equity right where they are.
